CITY COURT CASES.

Oriental Show Man Gets Into Trouble.

In the police court Wednesday morning the case against Walter Timmons of this city, charged with the seduction of a young girl now in a New Haven institution, was continued until this morning. The accused was released under $1,000 bail.

Andrew Sanders, who is connected with the Oriental show performing at the Moose carnival, was before the court charged with intoxication and with carrying concealed weapons. He received a fine of one dollar and costs on the first count and twenty-five dollars and costs on the second.

Sanders was fooling with a revolver late Tuesday evening over on the carnival grounds, and when he came over to town, kept it in his pocket, presumably. At all events, he was intoxicated when he went into a Main street restaurant, and he began to flourish the revolver and threaten to shoot the electric fan. Lieutenant Killoury was notified and made the arrest.

Five-Year-Old Boy's Leg Broken.
Edward Menditto, the five-year-old son of Dominick Menditto of Valley street, is a patient at St. Joseph's hospital as the result of a fall. The lad was convalescing from an operation performed a few weeks ago and slipped on the threshold of his home, falling in such a way that his right leg was broken just above the knee. He is reported to be in a serious condition.

Miss Pitcher Brought from New Haven.
Chief E. H. Richmond of the local police force went to New Haven Wednesday, returning with Ruth Irene Pitcher, the young girl at present an inmate of the Florence Crittenden Mission in that city, who is wanted as a witness against Walter Timmons, whose case comes before the police court this morning.

Precautionary Fumigation.
Health Officer W. P. S. Keating was busy Wednesday fumigating the home of the Berger family, who live next door to the Doyles, in which family the one case of smallpox, which the city has had was found and segregated. No new cases have developed and the probability is that the Doyle family will be released from quarantine today.

FUNERAL.
Miss H. Josephine Amidon.

Funeral services for Miss H. Josephine Amidon were held from the home of Mrs. O. A. Perry in Mansfield center, Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev. E. P. Ayer officiated and there was singing by a quartette. The services were largely attended and the floral offerings were beautiful. Burial was in the Westford Hill cemetery, Ashford.

No Home Game Saturday.
On account of the match game between the Emeralds of this city and the Mystic team Saturday at the latter place, there will be no game in the Thred Mill league on that day. Some of the stars of the league will be absent with the Emeralds, and in place of the scheduled games a picked team from the league will play a fast aggregation from Baltic, on the league grounds.

GROUCH AGAINST MOOSE.
Weather Man Seems to Be Working It Off—But Parade Was Held.

The weather man must have been blackballed by some Moose lodge, for the samples he has been turning out for the local carnival. Rain four out of six days is his record so far. At first the big parade was set for last Thursday, then postponed until Tuesday of this week, and when it poured then the next fair day was selected. Wednesday dawned bright, and before noon the clouds were all dispersed, and arrangements put in motion for the parade. About 2 o'clock the skies clouded over again and the rain came down hard for over an hour. There was a lull around 3, however, and the committee decided to go ahead with the arrangements.

Placards were put up in conspicuous places and the telephone was used all the afternoon in the effort to convey the news around, with the result that about 600 were in line at 8:15 when the parade started from High street. The line of march was from High down Main to Union, down Union to Main, just below Thred Mill square, then over the bridge on Main street to Pleasant, and thence to the grounds.

The parade was headed by a platoon of police, followed by Marshal Dr. W. M. Fatz and his aides, J. F. Twomey, Harry Eggleston, A. N. Gilman, P. J. Minahan and Frank H. Posa. The Willimantic American band came next, followed by Company L, First C. N. G., and Garde Florimonde. The American Fire brigade was next in line, in five came visiting delegations from Norwich, New London, Putnam, Manchester, Hartford and surrounding towns, including the South Coventry team corps. Willimantic lodge, No. 1440, L. O. O. M., followed. A string of automobiles carrying the committee, and invited guests closed the procession. Prominent among the guests was J. P. Boutvier, deputy national director.

There was red fire in abundance and a big crowd followed the parade to the home grounds, where the midway and the other attractions did a fine business despite the threatening weather. Two new shows were on the grounds, the athletic show, which came Tuesday, and the Southern Troubadours, a colored troupe rendering old time southern melodies. The dancing exhibition by Johnny Dolan and Miss Charlotte Stultz was greatly enjoyed. The dance floor had been put in fine shape for the dancing and a big crowd enjoyed the ever popular dancing. All in all, it was a fine night for the success of the big carnival, which bids fair to be one grand success, if the weather man will forget his grudge.

STONINGTON

New Rector of St. Mary's Preaches Farewell Sermons at Waterbury.

The Rev. James E. O'Brien, assistant pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception in Waterbury for 16 years, celebrated his last mass at the church Sunday. Previous to taking up his work as pastor of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church in Stonington, Father O'Brien had been called to Waterbury, where he had been the rector Sunday to wish him God-speed in his new field of labor.

During the week friends of the priest planned to show their friendship in a substantial manner, but when Father O'Brien heard of the discouraging the plan, and at his suggestion the entire thing was dropped.

Father O'Brien celebrated two masses Sunday at 8 o'clock and 9 o'clock. At both masses he spoke of his being in Waterbury for the past 16 years, coming to that city in 1898. He spoke feelingly of the many courtesies which have been tendered him since coming to Waterbury, and said: "No matter what happens, I shall always have the most profound respect for the people of Waterbury and for the parishioners of this church." Father O'Brien also paid a compliment to the parishioners of other Catholic churches in this city, saying he had never found any of them wanting when anything was required of them.

His associations with Waterbury, said the priest, "have always been congenial."
